II. Required Essays

Essay 1: Tell us all about yourself: Let a 300-word typed, double-spaced autobiography reflect your personality and creativity. What is important to you in your life? What have you accomplished so far? What do you hope to do in the future? Why is journalism important to you?

Essay 2: The ultimate goal of this workshop is to help the newspaper industry increase the number of minorities working as reporters and editors and to help assure diversity in newspaper content. Do you think that's important? Why? What would you hope to gain from attending the workshop and what do you think you have to offer if you attend?

III. Other Writing Samples

Please attach to this application two (2) other samples of your writing. If possible, include clippings from your school newspaper, yearbook, or other publications. If you are writing a sample for this application, choose a topic that is currently in the news and explain how it relates to young people today.

IV. Required Recommendations

Two letters of recommendation are required. Please ask two people who know you well - high school teachers, newspaper advisers, etc. -- for a letter of recommendation that describes your qualifications for this workshop. Each letter must include the person's name, title, home address and phone number.

V. Photo

VI. Signatures

Applicant: I hereby verify that the information provided above is correct and accurate to the best of my knowledge, and that the writing is my own work. I also certify that I have not previously attended any other Dow Jones funded journalism workshop.
