

The Richard Drukker Memorial Scholarship

Instructions

Deadline: March 25, 2010

General Information:

The Richard Drukker Memorial Scholarship is a $2,000 award to a Montclair State University student to help pay his or her MSU costs for the fall 2010 semester.

This scholarship program is open to all journalism minors and/or staff members of The Montclarion. Students who received any New Jersey Press Foundation scholarship in 2009 are not eligible for the 2010 Drukker scholarship.

Applicants must deliver the application form and all attachments (see below) to the English Department office DI-468 no later than 4 p.m. on Thursday, March 25. The English Department will send the applications to New Jersey Press Foundation for judging by a panel of newspaper editors.

The scholarship recipient will be recognized at the English Department's annual awards event in May.

Required for a Complete Application:

1. The application form, complete with all information requested.
2. Academic transcript(s) for all college course work completed through December 2009. The university seal is not required.
3. Three samples of journalistic writing that either appeared in any newspaper or were completed as class assignments. For printed articles, photocopy them so they fit on letter-size paper; use as few sheets of paper as possible – but the text must be easy to read. For class assignments, print on letter-size paper. Please do not copy or print on the back of any pages.
4. A statement of your interest in a newspaper career, written as an autobiographical sketch describing your journalistic skills and achievements (500 words or less). This essay must be typed and double-spaced, not handwritten.
